

PLEIN AIR PAINTOUT at Mahaffy Ranch

Saturday, October 12, 2013

& EXHIBIT at Coos Art Museum October 12 - December 7, 2013

This is intended to be a challenging, yet fun event. Mahaffy Ranch is a u-pick pumpkin patch located at 10362 Hwy 241, Coos Bay (~15 miles from Coos Art Museum towards Allegany, approx. ½ hour drive). It lends itself extremely well to seasonal, farm related plein air paintings. Nestled along the Millicoma River amid the mountains, this 95+ acre ranch features a huge pumpkin patch, corn maze, farm animals, tractors, corn cannon, hay rides, and harvest store decorated with every color, shape and size gourd and pumpkin imaginable.

SUMMARY

Framing: You will need to mat and frame your work. Tables will be set up at CAM to complete this process. Well-anchored, substantial wires are required. No strings or tape allowed! Suggestion: if using gallery wrap canvas, pre-wire the back.

Sides of canvas may be pre-painted.

Prizes: 1st Place, 2nd Place and 3rd Place Ribbons

This Plein Air Paintout & Exhibit is an extension of the Coos Art Museum's annual fundraiser Fall Fling for the Arts. All works accepted in the exhibition will be judged and available for sale at the Fall Fling for the Arts event on Saturday, October 12 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Artists agree to donate 50% of any sale to the Coos Art Museum. Please price your works with this in mind. Artist is to be paid three weeks from end of show. If an item sells during the event, the purchaser reserves the right to take it with them that same day. Unsold items remaining at the close of the event, will remain on display at Coos Art Museum through December 7, 2013 and may not be removed from the Museum for any reason prior to that date.

Although all possible care will be taken, Coos Art Museum will not be responsible for damage to or loss of works submitted to the Plein Air Paintout & Exhibit. Works left at the Coos Art Museum over 30 days after the close of the exhibit are considered abandoned and will be disposed of accordingly.
